CLOUD-BASED STORAGE
All clouds below offer: ~File link sharing ~Folder sharing ~Version Control ~Bookmarking of URL web addresses unless otherwise noted
NAME	FREE STORAGE LIMIT	COMMENTS	PAID VERSION
Box	10 GB	~File preview functionality (preview from the browser without download) ~Additional file sharing security settings such as password protection, link expiration, and allow download. ~Group Ownership of Files: Unlike Google Drive, Box allows users to have group ownership of files whereas Google Drive only allows ownership of files by the creator of the file. With Box, the owner of the folder is given ownership of the files and that can be individual ownership or group ownership.	100GB @ $10/month
Google Drive	15 GB	~Free integration with Google suite of applications ~Up to 50 users can collaborate on, and edit, the same document simultaneously ~Storage space is shared with Google Photos and Gmail. ~Must have a Chrome extension called, "Save Link to Google Drive" to save web URLs (i.e. bookmark web addresses)	100GB @ $1.99/month 1TB @ $10/month
DropBox	2 GB	Shared folders use space in each member's account, unless each person is on the same Dropbox Business team. Your Dropbox storage quota is calculated by adding up the total amount of data in your Dropbox account. This includes all shared folders you are a member of and all files collected from file requests.	https://www.dropbox.com/plans
