

Characteristics of a Successful Chorus Member

Vocal Characteristics

Regular attendance that is self-motivated
Learn and rehearse with goals in mind
Take initiative
Internalize the difference between work mode and performance mode
Have artistic awareness
Continually develop vocal skills
Demonstrate vocal command of musical plans of every song
Have ensemble awareness through good listening skills
Lift in every way
Learn ALL notes - Accuracy!!

Visual Characteristics

Use personal initiative to study the barbershop craft
Rehearse at performance level at all times
Learn without talking and discussion
Be flexible and willing to embrace change
Use the mirror at home and continually develop characterization skills
Record rehearsals and create learning tools for retaining choreography
Participate in competitions and performances
Use positive self-talk
Chooses Personal Responsibility